CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
Paso Robles Public Educators CTA/NEA - CFT/AFT
Adopted May 23, 2014

I. NAME AND LOCATION
The official name of this Chapter shall be the Paso Robles Public Educators CTA/NEA – CFT/AFT in San Luis Obispo County (herein "PRPE" or "Chapter").

II. PURPOSES
The primary purposes of this Chapter shall be:

A. To represent its members in their relations with their employer, and to seek to be the exclusive representative of appropriate units of school employees in all matters relating to employment conditions and employer-employee relations including, but not limited to, wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment;

B. To form a representative body capable of developing group opinion on professional matters to speak with authority for members;

C. To provide an opportunity for continuous study and action on problems of the profession;

D. To promote cooperation and communication between education support professionals and certificated educators;

E. To provide a means of representation for its ethnic-minority members;

F. To promote professional attitudes and ethical conduct among members;

G. To encourage cooperation and communication between the profession and the community; and

H. To foster good fellowship among members.

III. AFFILIATION WITH CTA/NEA and CFT/AFT
A. PRPE shall be a chartered chapter of the California Teachers Association (CTA) and the California Federation of Teachers (CFT).

B. PRPE shall be an affiliate local chapter of the National Education Association (NEA) and the American Federation of Teachers (AFT/AFL/CIO).

IV. MEMBERSHIP
A. The primary category of membership shall be Active members.

B. Active membership shall be open to any person who is engaged in or who is on limited leave of absence from professional educational work, is an employee of Paso Robles Joint Unified School District, and whose primary assignment is such as not to hold evaluative responsibility over other employees to such an extent as not to be represented in the negotiations process by the bargaining unit.

C. Membership may be granted upon initiation of payroll deduction or upon payment of annual Chapter, CTA/NEA, and CFT/AFT dues.
CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
Paso Robles Public Educators CTA/NEA - CFT/AFT
Adopted May 23, 2014

D. The right to vote and to hold elective office or appointive position within the Chapter shall be limited to Active members.

E. Members shall receive special services, obtain assistance in the protection of professional and civil rights, and receive reports and publications of the Association.

F. Active members shall adhere to The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession.

G. The rights to and privileges of membership shall not be abridged in any way because of age, sex, race, color, ethnic group, marital status, national origin or sexual orientation.

H. No member of the Association may be disciplined by the chapter without due process. Due process includes the right to select representation, to present evidence on his/her behalf, to confront and cross-examine his/her accuser and any other witnesses against him/her, and to examine and refute all evidence considered by the hearing panel, whether or not such evidence is presented at a hearing. The member has the right to appeal the decision of the hearing panel to the governing body.

I. The membership year shall be that period of time from September 1 of any given calendar year through August 31 of the following calendar year, inclusive.

J. Unless otherwise expressly provided by law, persons who tender agency fees shall have no rights or privileges within this Chapter.

V. DUES, FEES, AND ASSESSMENTS

A. The basic annual dues level for Active members, and representation fee for non-members represented in the bargaining unit, shall be sufficient to cover the operation expenses of the Chapter, the dues of CFT and CTA, and the dues of AFT and NEA.

B. The Chapter's portion of the basic annual dues, and the representation fee for non-members, shall be established by action of the active membership of the Chapter at the last regular meeting of the school year.

C. The Chapter shall apportion any negotiated representation fee or organizational security fee on the same percentage basis as the full Chapter CTA/NEA-CFT/AFT dues.

D. Membership shall be continuous after initial enrollment until delinquent or until a change in professional status shall make the member ineligible for membership. If by October 31 of any calendar year a member has neither paid the established annual membership dues for the current membership year, nor made satisfactory arrangements for payment, then that person's membership shall be considered delinquent and the name dropped from the rolls.

Code of Ethics of the Education Profession

Preamble

The educator, believing in the worth and dignity of each human being, recognizes the supreme importance of the pursuit of truth, devotion to excellence, and the nurture of democratic principles. Essential to these goals is the protection of freedom to learn and to teach and the guarantee of equal educational opportunity for all. The educator accepts the responsibility to adhere to the highest ethical standards.

The educator recognizes the magnitude of the responsibility inherent in the teaching process. The desire for the respect and confidence of one’s colleagues, of students, of parents, and of the members of the community provides the incentive to attain and maintain the highest possible degree of ethical conduct. The Code of Ethics of the Education Profession indicates the aspiration of all educators and provides standards by which to judge conduct.

The remedies specified by the NEA and/or its affiliates for the violation of any provision of this Code shall be exclusive and no such provision shall be enforceable in any form other than one specifically designated by the NEA or its affiliates.

PRINCIPLE I

Commitment to the Student

The educator strives to help each student realize his or her potential as a worth and effective member of society. The educator therefore works to stimulate the spirit of inquiry, the acquisition of knowledge and understanding, and the thoughtful formulation of worthy goals.

In fulfillment of the obligation to the student, the educator—

1. Shall not unreasonably restrain the student from independent action in the pursuit of learning.
2. Shall not unreasonably deny the student access to varying points of view.
3. Shall not deliberately suppress or distort subject matter relevant to the student’s progress.
4. Shall make reasonable effort to protect the student from conditions harmful to learning or to health and safety.
5. Shall not intentionally expose the student to embarrassment or disparagement.
6. Shall not on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, national origin, marital status, political or religious beliefs, family, social or cultural background, or sexual orientation, unfairly—
   a. Exclude any student from participation in any program;
   b. Deny benefits to any student;
   c. Grant any advantage to any student.
7. Shall not use professional relationships with students for private advantage.
8. Shall not disclose information about students obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law.

PRINCIPLE II

Commitment to the Profession

The education profession is vested by the public with a trust and responsibility requiring the highest ideals of professional service.

In the belief that the quality of the services of the education profession directly influences the nation and its citizens, the educator shall exert every effort to raise professional standards, to promote a climate that encourages the exercise of professional judgment, to achieve conditions that attract persons worthy of the trust to careers in education, and to assist in preventing the practice of the profession by unqualified persons.

In fulfillment of the obligation to the profession, the educator—
1. Shall not in an application for a professional position deliberately make a false statement or fail to disclose a material fact related to competency and qualifications.
2. Shall not misrepresent his/her professional qualifications.
3. Shall not assist any entry into the profession of a person known to be unqualified in respect to character, education, or other relevant attribute.
4. Shall not knowingly make a false statement concerning the qualifications of a candidate for a professional position.
5. Shall not assist a non-educator in the unauthorized practice of teaching.
6. Shall not disclose information about colleagues obtained in the course of professional service unless disclosure serves a compelling professional purpose or is required by law.
7. Shall not knowingly make false or malicious statements about a colleague.
8. Shall not accept any gratuity, gift, or favor that might impair or appear to influence professional decisions or action.

——Adopted by the 1975 NEA Representative Assembly
Standing Rules: Request for a Contract Waiver

1. All waivers will be presented to the Representative Council for the Council's consideration.

2. No waiver shall be granted for more than the term of the school year in which the waiver is granted.

3. Action on a waiver request shall not take place at the Representative Council meeting at which a request is first presented.

4. The Representative Council will act on a written waiver request within 35 days of its receipt by the Association except that a waiver request presented at the last Representative Council meeting of the school year will be held over until the next Representative Council meeting.

5. Where appropriate, waivers approved by the Representative Council will be presented to the District Board of Trustees for the Trustees' consideration.

6. Any unit member may bring forward a request for an individual request for a waiver of the contract or an agent of the District acting as a representative of the District may bring forward a request for a waiver of the contract.

7. Where a site or program would be impacted by a waiver request or is making a waiver request and before the request is considered by the Representative Council, the request shall be approved by 70% of the membership at the site or in the program as determined by a secret ballot vote conducted by the Association. A petition from 30% of the membership at a site or program presented to the Association will constitute a waiver request and will trigger a secret ballot vote.
Standing Rules: Grievance Processing (Employment Related)

1. All unit members, whether a member of the Association or not, have equal access to, and rights to, Association resources and assistance in the prosecution of any action the unit member may bring forward pursuant to the provisions of the grievance procedure provided in the employment agreement between the Association and the District.

2. All officers and site representatives of the Association shall receive training on how to identify and prosecute a grievance pursuant to the procedure provided in the employment agreement between the Association and the District. Any interested member may also participate in that training. All members receiving training shall do so with the understanding that the member will be willing and available to act as a grievance representative if called upon to do so.

3. The Grievance Committee shall regularly review and evaluate the grievance policies and procedures of the Association and make recommendations to the Representative Council for revisions as needed.

4. No grievance shall be submitted to arbitration unless doing so has been authorized by the Executive Board that shall use the following criteria in reaching a decision:
   a. Does the Association have credible evidence and arguments to support its position?
   b. Is there a reasonable chance of winning the case?
   c. Is the cost worth the economic and political gains sought?
   d. Is it incidental or precedent setting?
   e. Does the Association have the resources to see it through?
F. Are serious political considerations involved?

G. Will the grievance achieve the goal sought?

H. Will a victory deter the employer from similar adverse actions in the future?

I. Will a victory help resolve problems or merely stimulate new grievances by other employees?

J. Have all procedural steps been followed properly?

5. Any grievant or member of a class or group of grievants who disagrees with the decision of the Executive Board not to press a grievance to arbitration, may appeal the decision to the Representative Council.
Standing Rules: Grievance Processing (Internal)

1. Any member of the Association may bring a grievance against the Association for good cause by submitting a written complaint to the President that shall include:

   A. The name of the grievant or grievants;

   B. A clear statement of the grievance;

   C. A detailed statement of the facts which give rise to good cause; and,

   D. A clear statement of the action sought as relief.

2. The President or designee shall meet with the grievant(s) in an informal effort to resolve the complaint.

3. If the grievant(s) are not satisfied by the informal effort to resolve the grievance, the grievant(s) may, by written application to the President, appeal the grievance to the Executive Board. The Executive Board shall review the written complaint, investigate the allegations contained within, and render a written decision, which the President shall cause to be delivered to the grievant(s). Upon written application to the president, the grievant(s) shall be allowed to address the Executive Board as part of the Executive Board's investigation.

4. If the grievant(s) are dissatisfied with the decision of the Executive Board, the grievant(s) may appeal to the Representative Council by submitting a written appeal to the President of the Association. The Representative Council shall review the written complaint, investigate the allegations contained within, and render a written decision that the President shall cause to be delivered to the grievant(s). Upon written application to the President, the grievant(s) shall be allowed to address the Representative Council as part of the Representative Council's investigation.

5. No resolution reached or granted at any level may violate any rules or regulations of the Association or its affiliates, CTA and NEA, unless said rules or regulations are waived by the appropriate legislative body.

Standing Rules: Ratification Procedures

1. Agreements reached between the Bargaining Team and the School Board or its representatives shall be considered tentative and not binding upon the Association until such agreements have been ratified by the membership in the appropriate unit(s) unless such ratification shall have been specifically waived or otherwise delegated by the membership of that unit(s).

2. Within ten (10) days of finalizing a tentative agreement, the President and Bargaining Team Chair shall cause a complete copy of the tentative agreement to be distributed to the membership.

3. Within fifteen (15) days of finalizing a tentative agreement, but no sooner than the distribution of the complete copy of the tentative agreement, the President shall convene a general membership meeting of the appropriate bargaining unit(s) to discuss the tentative agreement.

4. Ratification of the tentative agreement shall be by secret ballot election held at the sites and conducted by the Representative Council and Elections Committee at times and dates established by the Executive Board but no later than ten (10) working days after the general membership meeting.

5. The ratification ballot shall provide two choices: "Yes, I ratify the tentative agreement reached on [date]" and "No, I reject the tentative agreement reached on [date] and authorize the Executive Board to initiate concerted activities up to and including a strike."
